DEDICATION

To Mr. Spangler

To Mr. Spangler, our friend and advisor, we leave this annual of 1944. We, the graduating class, wish to express our sincere appreciation of all the benefits we have derived from his guidance and leadership.

CLASS OFFICERS

President	-	-	-	Robert Mathie
Vice President	-	-	-	Jean King
Secretary	-	-	-	Joy Warburton
Treasurer	-	-	-	Richard Firestone
Historian	-	-	-	Jeanne Smith

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN: Oh, boy, freshmen at last and a party to start us off. We start off our high school life right by bringing to light our master-minds and challenge anyone.

SOPHOMORE: Now it's our turn—we give the Freshmen a super party as we welcome them into high school life. Our football and basketball players are destined for the spotlights as they strive on to fame and victory.

JUNIOR: Juniors at last, and nothing like a swell play to show off our acting talent in "Abie's Irish Rose." We gave the seniors their final at Shady Hollow—and oh, what a party!

SENIOR: Well, here we are as dignified (?) seniors as we march off to be "shot" by the camera. The Juniors send us off with a prom. Our scholars are a match for anyone as they ascend the paths of knowledge. We say farewell to Mr. Spangler, our class advisor, and get the diplomas for which we have strived. Behind us we leave many fond memories of No-Ca-Hi.

CLASS WILL

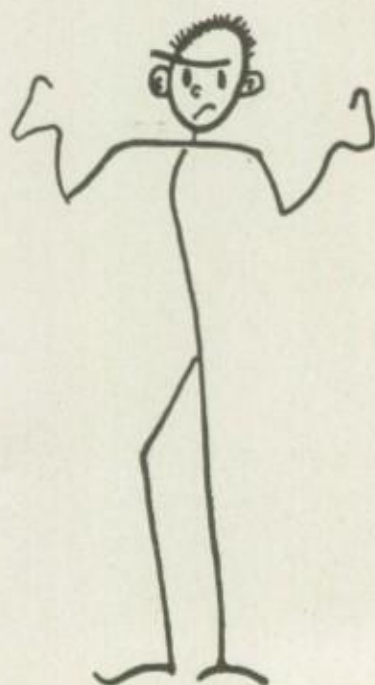

As our days at No-Ca-Hi become memories, we wish to leave the following as remembrances to our friends and foes, the underclassmen:

Jim Howe's punctuality to Arthur Schneider.
Roslyn Carper's poetic genius to Ted Leed.

To Barbara Mooring, Jeanne Werstler's dimple.
David Gibler's knack for typing to Beverly Richards.
Bob Mathie's short hair-cuts to Gene Smith.
All the coal in the world to the furnace of N. C. H. S.
To Raymond Hart, Don Myers' efficiency back-stage.
Noeli Winkleman's understood future to her sister, Wanda.

Joe Dolvin's twinkling toes to John Bernard.
To future annual staffs, we leave our worries, woes, and arguments.
Gene Shook's moron complex to Larry Fox.
Joy and Tom leave their beautiful friendship to Margaret Smith and Duane Patterson.
Donna Harman's underlying wit to Dale Mills.

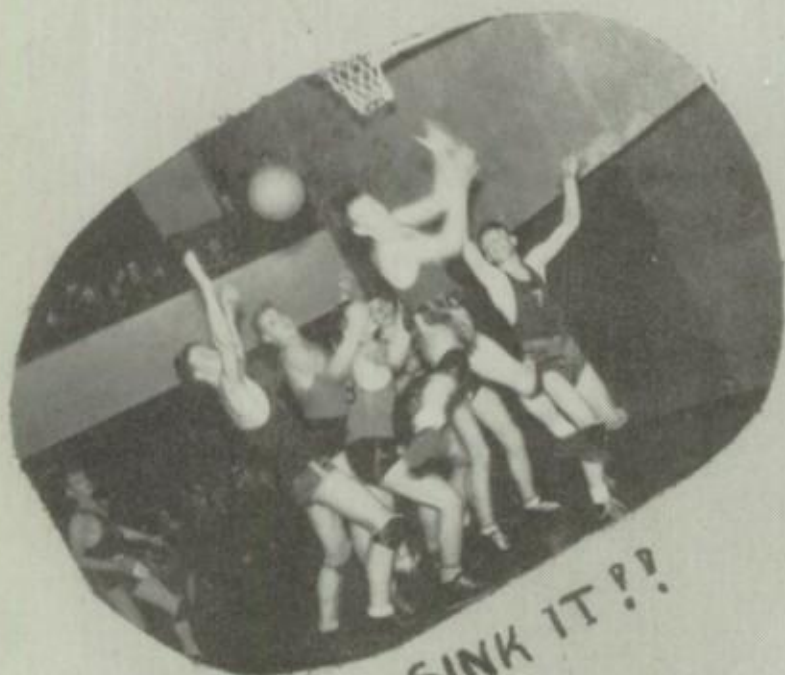

Jim Van Vrankin leaves Sally to another deserving athlete.
We, as Seniors, leave our dignity to the Juniors.
To future "Casanovas," Dan Howe's way with women.
Dick Firestone's imitation of Frank Sinatra to Bertie Reikowsky.
Tom Wolf's Tarzan build to Harold Murphy.
Ned Kamp's ski boots to anyone having lost his ration stamp.

DON'T put up with smeared, unsanitary toilet bowls. It's easy to keep them sparkling-clean and above suspicion. No nasty work. No rubbing or scrubbing. Every time you use Sani-Flush you clean away many recurring toilet germs and a cause of toilet odors. Sani-Flush works chemically and should not be confused with ordinary cleaners. Even cleans the hidden trap. Sold everywhere.

A P P R E C I A T I O N

The annual staff and the senior class wish to express their appreciation to all those who aided in putting out this year book.

There are always a few persons who deserve special mention and special thanks for the outstanding services they have rendered.

We want to thank Miss Aldridge for her patience and time which were needed so much.

Mr. Swogger for his pointers and knowledge of annuals.

Mr. Davis, who even though hindered by war time restrictions, still got our pictures to us on time.

Mr. Robertson for his good work in printing.

The advertisers, subscribers, faculty, student body, and all others who have contributed to this publication.
